

Boothbay Harbor Yacht Club general management:

The GM was hired by the Board of Directors, reports to the Commodore, and is responsible for carrying out the Board's policies. The GM is accountable for all areas of the club, and will ensure the synergism of all club activities.

The GM is responsible for these major areas: operations, assets/investments, club culture, physical property, the financial well-being, and the human resource operations.